OFFICE OF DRUG CONTROL POLICY
STEVEN F. LUKAN, DIRECTOR

Andrew Quick, age 24, of Waukee, is assigned as an F-16 Aircraft Technician for the 132nd Fighter Wing in Des Moines, Iowa. Past years' experience include two successful tours in Iraq, and an efficacious tour in Afghanistan, to include an overlay of other mission critical tours of duty throughout the United States. Andrew has been decorated with the Air Force Achievement Medal among other recognitions in his six years of duty. Andrew has also worked with Midwest Counter Drug Training Center in close support of educating and supporting the program and its students' success. Behind all of this he has also worked for such companies as John Deere, Complete Nutrition and Costco, bringing a broad spectrum of cognition and aptitude to the table. Andrew plans to achieve his Bachelors in Business this fall from Upper Iowa University and earn his private pilot's license and instrumental rating by next summer.

Currently, Andrew is assigned to work as a Project Manager on the 2012 National Alliance for Drug Endangered Children Conference for the Governor's Office of Drug Control Policy.
